ABOUT US

We are a proudly family owned and operated funeral home. We believe each person deserves a unique and individual service. The process of funeral planning can be stressful and daunting and it can be a challenging time when it comes to saying goodbye. Our highly-experienced team are here to help you. We are committed to providing you and your loved one with excellent care and a unique, personalized farewell and a fitting tribute to their life. At Macdonald & Weston we listen to your needs and guide you through all the details and your needs to ensure your loved one's funeral service is personal, meaningful and everything you want it to be. We know the time after losing a loved one can often be confusing and challenging. Everyone deals with loss differently, emotions can be as varied as the individuals, and there is uncertainty, especially when you are faced with planning your loved one's funeral. It is important that everyone within your family is allowed to voice their ideas and opinions and be involved in their own unique way.
